Scholarly/Creative Activity in the HS Clinical Series

• Review criteria for appointment and advancement:
  • APM-278-4: “Health Sciences Clinical professor series faculty engage in scholarly or creative activities which derive from and support their primary responsibilities in clinical teaching and professional and service activities.”
  • The definition of scholarly/creative activities for the HS Clinical series is very broadly defined.

• Current language does not require regional or national reputation
Scholarly/Creative Activity in the HS Clinical Series

See APM-210-6 – some examples below:

• Contributions to educational curricula
• Contributions to community-oriented programs
• Contributions to administration/supervision of a clinical service or health care facility
• Contributions to clinical guidelines
• Contributions to quality improvement programs
• Contributions to medical or other disciplinary information systems
• Development of novel mentoring programs
• Development or oversight of a lecture/seminar series

Academic Advancement

Criteria (APM)
- Teaching and mentoring
- Research & other creative activities
- Professional competence
- University & public service

Weighting of Criteria
- Series-dependent
- Department-defined

Promotion expectations in clear terms:
- APM-210 “Review & Appraisal Committees”
Senate Faculty: Stop-the-Clock
- For Assistant Professors the 8-year clock has been extended to nine years by default (an automatic 1-year extension) without the need to submit any formal request or justification.
- Faculty need not use the additional year if they are ready for promotion prior to the 9th year.

Non-Senate Faculty: Deferment
- At UCSF, non-Senate faculty are not subject to the 8-yr limitation on service at Assistant rank. However, non-Senate faculty may request deferral of academic review.

Fourth-year Appraisals
- May be delayed on request; not automatically deferred
Representing COVID-related Contributions and Challenges in your Academic Review File

- Use the CV to document positive contributions related to COVID
- Use the “Candidate Personal Statement” in Advance to address professional and/or personal challenges and/or positive contributions related to COVID
  - Impact of personal illness or caregiving responsibilities
  - Transition to distance instruction
  - Impact of shelter in place or reduced lab/office occupancy on scholarly/creative activity
  - Increased student mentoring/advising
  - Highlight additional clinical, service, teaching or leadership responsibilities for the institution or community taken on as a result of the pandemic.
ATTENTION: A link to COVID-19 Guidance is available on the My Packet tab for faculty who wish to address any negative impacts or report additional accomplishments related to COVID-19 in their packet.

“Those who are newly-appointed or have demonstrated satisfactory academic productivity during pre-pandemic periods will continue on a similar trajectory during the pandemic and for a subsequent period, approximately 2 to 3 years.”

Guidance to faculty:

- Do not self-defer academic review without first discussing with Chair and/or Dean’s Office
- Use COVID Personal Statement feature in Advance; detailed personal information need not be revealed
Academic Review During COVID-19

Updated Guidance: August 2021

Guidance to reviewers:

• “Holistic review”
  • Faculty member’s accomplishments considered in context of other responsibilities (e.g., clinical work)
  • Broader view of scholarly/creative work
  • Avoid applying “absolute” requirements (teaching scores, # committees, # publications, etc.)

• “Achievement relative to opportunity”
  • Considers the disclosed circumstances, working arrangements or career history and the effect they can have on faculty achievement
  • Quality and impact of performance/achievements are more important than quantity or rate of productivity
Policy Changes for HS Clinical Series

What changed?

- Review criteria for appointment and advancement:
  - APM-278-4: “Health Sciences Clinical professor series faculty engage in scholarly or creative activities which derive from and support their primary responsibilities in clinical teaching and professional and service activities.”
  - The definition of scholarly/creative activities for the HS Clinical series is very broadly defined.
- Current language does not require regional or national reputation
Policy Changes for HS Clinical Series

What types of activities are considered “scholarly or creative” in this series?

• See APM-210-6 – some examples below:
  • Contributions to educational curricula
  • Contributions to community-oriented programs
  • Contributions to administration/supervision of a clinical service or health care facility
  • Contributions to clinical guidelines
  • Contributions to quality improvement programs
  • Contributions to medical or other disciplinary information systems
  • Development of novel mentoring programs
  • Development or oversight of a lecture/seminar series
Contributions to Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

• APM-210-1-d: “…contributions in all areas of faculty achievement that promote equal opportunity and diversity should be given due recognition in the academic personnel process, and they should be evaluated and credited in the same way as other faculty achievements.” (2015 revision)

• EQOP has developed guidance for inclusion of DEI efforts and for writing “Contributions to Diversity” statements; many examples provided
  • This guidance is imbedded into Advance

• Inclusion of Contributions to Diversity statements is highly encouraged; presently, there is no campus-wide requirement
  • Schools of Nursing and Pharmacy require these statements
Guidelines for Accelerated Advancement

- Exceptional performance in one area
  - Prestigious competitive grant beyond expectations
  - Competitive professional service award for national/international service (e.g., to a discipline, to education, or to diversity, equity and inclusion)
  - Sustained level of outstanding achievement
  - Unusual productivity
  - Extraordinary service – administrative, innovative program, 3 year service on major committee (e.g. IACUC / IRB / Admissions [varies by School])

- Meet all other expectations for the proposed advancement

- See: https://facultyacademicaffairs.ucsf.edu/academic-personnel/academic-review-and-advancement/Criteria-for-Advancement-for-Faculty.pdf
Change In Series

• May be appropriate when there are changes in role and responsibilities

• Can be undertaken at any time

• Process:
  – Discussion with Chief and/or Chair
  – Academic packet (Advance)

Your Promotion Packet Contains:

- CV
- Student/peer teaching evaluations; mentee evaluations
- Letters of evaluation (≥ 3 internal and ≥ 3 external)
  - Not required for most merits
- Faculty vote
  - Not required for most merits
- Departmental recommendation letter
Your CV

- Develop a system for recordkeeping - ADVANCE
- Comply with all department deadlines
- Accuracy and clarity are your responsibility
- The importance of your accomplishments should be clear to those outside of your discipline
- Use descriptive summary text sections wisely (e.g., teaching, clinical activities, research, service summaries; contributions to diversity)
- The “Significant Publications” section provides an opportunity to describe your independent contributions
Letters of Reference

- Required for appointment, appraisal, promotion, merit to Prof. Step 6 and Above Scale
- Begin cultivating professional relationships early
- Be strategic in your choices (discuss with mentors, department chair)
- Letters should come from individuals at the academic rank you’re going to, or above
- You may wish to contact prospective letter writers to gauge their willingness to write a supportive letter
- Your department may request more internal and external letters than is required
Committee on Academic Personnel
When does CAP get involved?

- CAP reviews faculty at major events:
  - Appointments above Assistant rank
  - Appraisals
  - Promotion to Associate or Full Professor
  - Change in Series
  - Accelerations (>1 yr and/or consecutive accelerations)
  - Merit advancement to Professor Step VI and to Above Scale
Summary

- Know your series and what is required
- Seek out effective mentors and use them
- Seek collaborators and help when needed
- Be outstanding in teaching, research, professional competence, service
- Meet annually with Division Chief or Chair to review progress
- Seek expert advice in special circumstances
- Use the CV, Candidate Personal Statement and provide input to your Chair (for the departmental letter) so that ‘special circumstances’ are made clear in your dossier
- Be successful!
Pre-submitted Questions

- Where are the actual criteria for promotion found?
  - Are there specific criteria at the level of your dept?
  - UCSF Faculty Handbook
  - APM (esp. APM-210)

- What are the elements of a promotion packet?
  - See prior slide
Pre-submitted Questions

- Examples of dissemination for Clinical X series faculty?
  - Publications including clinical case reports
  - Healthcare concepts, techniques, or improvements adopted elsewhere
  - Educational innovations or improvements adopted elsewhere
  - New ideas related to mission areas, shared outside the university, with a demonstrated impact
Pre-submitted Questions

- When is a career review appropriate and what is the process?
  - Purpose is to assess the individual’s overall career in order to determine the appropriateness of the current series, rank, and/or step
  - Usually initiated by the faculty member via written request to Chair; rec’d to discuss with Dean’s Office first
  - Full academic packet is required along with dept, Dean’s Office, CAP, and VPAA review
  - The outcome of a career review cannot be contested
  - Such a review can only be performed once in an individual’s career
Pre-submitted Questions

- Are there accomplishments beyond those already mentioned that might warrant accelerated advancement?
  - SOM-specific accelerated advancement examples:
    - UCSF Exceptional Physician Award
    - Election to Academy of Medical Educators
    - SOM Admissions Executive Committee
    - Exceptional accomplishments leading to a major leadership role

- The above examples are not guarantees of accelerated advancement

- Accomplishment other than those in campus/SOM guidelines may be considered; discuss with Dean’s Office
