LONDON AHEAD

Joint Annual Meeting ISMRM-ESMRMB SMRT Annual Meeting

07-12 May 2022 | London, England, UK
Abstract Deadline: 10 November 2021

We would like to thank Dr. Jessica AM Bastiaansen and Dr. Nico Sollmann as they complete their roles as Trainee Deputy Editors for JMRI. We appreciate all of the contributions that they've made to the journal during the past year and wish them the very best in their future endeavors.

Dr. Fei Li and Dr. Lena Vaclavu will be taking over as Trainee Deputy Editors in their stead. We are excited to have them join our group and look forward to collaborating with them over the next year.

Dr. Fei Li is in a first-level professorship (equal to assistant professor in the West) of radiology at the West China Hospital of Sichuan University, China. As a neuroradiologist, Dr. Li is committed to driving the clinical translation of the multimodal MR technological advancement and machine learning approaches to study brain characteristics of and improve the care for patients with psychiatric disorders.

Dr. Lena Vaclavu is a post-doctoral researcher at the Leiden University Medical Center, The Netherlands. Her research is focused on the development and implementation of advanced arterial spin labeling techniques for clinical applications.

A warm welcome to them both!
